

The Corporation for Ohio Appalachian Development is pleased to announce the availability of the COAD David V. Stivison Appalachian Community Action Scholarship Fund- 2016. COAD is offering this scholarship in collaboration with Ross County Community Action Commission, Inc. to students in Ross County who want to attend an institution of higher education, but lack the required resources to do so.

Eligible applicants will be required to submit a completed application form provided by COAD according to the instructions given. All applications should go directly to Ross County Community Action Commission, Inc. at 603 Central Center, Chillicothe, OH 45601.

The completed application must be submitted (postmarked) to Ross County Community Action Commission, Inc. by April 1, 2016 to be considered for funding for the academic year beginning in September 2017. Preference will be given to first year students who plan to attend either a 2 year or 4 year institution of higher education. Decisions will be made by the Scholarship Selection Committee with the scholarship winner announced May 1. The Selection Committee will review the applications submitted and select the recipients based on need, character, inclination, grades, and other factors it deems appropriate, except that it will not consider race, creed, color, age, sex, political affiliation, national origin, familial status or disability in such selections.

For an application and additional information on the COAD David V. Stivison Appalachian Community Action Scholarship Fund- 2017 visit: <http://www.coadinc.org/scholarships/eligibility>